BloomL 14

BLOOMINGTON. Indiana University, Lilly Library. Latin American Manuscripts, Guatemala, Music MS 14

1 hymn, 1 motet = 2

Anonymous

3 fragmentary paper folios, ca. 300 x 210. No foliation or pagination. These loose folios have become separated from other manuscripts in this set. Scribal concordance with BloomL 7.

Late 16th century. From Guatemala, probably Santa Eulalia. Obtained by Indiana University in 1969 from Lathrop C. Harper, New York.

No literature.

BOGOTÁ. Catedral, Archivo. MS s.s.

5 Masses, 10 Magnificats, 1 psalm, 1 hymn, 6 motets = 23 (most are incomplete)

R. Ceballos-8, Fernández Hidalgo-2, Morales-7, Victoria-1, anon-5

105 paper folios, 390 x 280. These folios are the remnants of a manuscript of perhaps 200 folios. They are part of a collection of loose sheets of music from the 16th, 17th, and 18th centuries in the Archivo of the cathedral in Bogotá. The original manuscript began with a collection of 5 or 6 Masses by Morales, continued with a series of motets, and included cycles of 8 Magnificats each by Ceballos and Morales. Some folios remain from the 23 pieces listed above; there are no remnants of 6 of the Morales Magnificats.

1584-6. Probably copied at the cathedral in Bogotá during the period in which Gutierre Fernández Hidalgo served as chapellmaster.

BolC A32

BOLOGNA. Civico Museo Bibliografico Musicale. MS A32
(olim 51) Fol. 32

A copy by Padre Martini of various treatises.

On pp. 63-76, Martini has copied the 22 polyphonic pieces contained in FaenBC 117, in their original mensural notation. There are also several letters to and from Padre Martini concerning his efforts to obtain FaenBC 117 from the Carmelite monastery of St. Paul in Ferrara, and several attempts at an inventory of this manuscript by Martini.

7 motets, 2 sets of falsobordone pieces, 2 French secular pieces = 11 + ca. 25 brief pieces illustrating mensural proportions and contrapuntal techniques

Josquin-1, Marlet-1, (Silva)-1, (Tinctoris)-2, (Willaert)-1, anonymous

vii + 152 + vi paper folios, 215 x 145. Pagination, perhaps from the 18th century, 1-303. The flyleaves preceding the manuscript proper contain a letter concerning the acquisition of the manuscript by Padre Martini and an 18th-century index, probably by Padre Martini. The manuscript contains six treatises on music (Guillermo de Podino-3, Gafurius-2, anon-1); the polyphonic pieces are inserted between the treatises, or in some cases occur as musical examples within the treatises.

1510-5 (O'DonSCB). Possibly compiled at the Spanish College in Bologna.

2 Glorias (both incomplete)

(Salinis)-1, anon-1

1 parchment folio, 195 x 212. Black mensural notation. This is the only remaining folio from a manuscript contemporary with and probably similar to BolC Q15. It was trimmed from its original larger size to serve as a cover for a later book.

1430-40 (Hamm). Probably from northern Italy.

342 folios, mostly paper but with some parchment folios as outer or middle bifolios of a gathering, 280 x 200. An old system of foliation in Roman numerals skips fascicles 11-12 and 20 (which have their own foliation), and ends with f. 318; another system of figures preceded by the letter "N" evidently represents an attempt to number the pieces, but it is quite inaccurate; modern foliation, 1-43, 43bis-190, 192-342. Rebound in new covers. Incomplete original index on first folio. Black mensural notation, with red and white coloration. One scribe copied ff. 1-250 and ff. 341-342'; two additional hands, roughly contemporaneous with that of the main scribe (KanP). About a third of the pieces have ornamented initials. Five different watermarks occur on the paper folios; some of these are also found in TrentC 87, TrentC 92, and MunBS Lat. 14274 (KanP).

Copying completed by 1440 (MGG). Copied in northern Italy, possibly at Piacenza (WrdPOH). Padre Martini acquired the manuscript from Piacenza in 1757.

ii + 152 + iv paper folios, 210 x 140. Ff. 13 and 143 are missing. Modern pencil foliation, 1-154, including the two front flyleaves; original ink foliation, I-CXXXVI, beginning on new f. 13. Original covers of brown tooled leather. Original index on ff. 3-8'. Scribe A, a certain Marsilius, copied the first and largest layer, through f. 127', then added an index in a gathering placed at the front of the manuscript; he wrote "finis" at the end of the section he copied, on f. 127', and also at the end of the index, on f. 8'. Scribes B and C added new pieces beginning on f. 128, then added titles of these to the index. Still later, three other scribes added single pieces on blank folios; these were not added to the index. Three watermarks: Briquet #3861 (Palermo, Rome, 1484); Briquet #4776-7 (Lucca, Udine, 1487-8); Briquet #12149 (Rome, 1484). Brief treatises in Latin are found on ff. 2' and 150'-152. Texts consist of incipits only (for all but three pieces); perhaps the repertory is instrumental (FullA).

Section A completed 1487 (inscription on f. 8': "finis / Do. 1487 / Marsilius"); second section added in 1490's (FullA) or 1500-10 (PeasC). Copied in Rome or Naples (FullA); Naples (HabkWVS, AtlCM); Bologna (ChegSB). Coat of arms on f. 2' is that of the de'Marsili family of Florence (PeasRC). Manuscript was in the possession of Padre Martini in the 18th century; his signature and some comments in his hand appear on f. 3.

30 paper folios, 340-5 x 225-65. All folios trimmed, with loss of some music. Originally five fascicle-manuscripts, each containing a single piece:

- A. 4 folios of an original 10, original size ca. 420 x 255 (1 Mass)
- B. 2 folios, original size ca. 435 x 270 (1 Magnificat)
- C. 6 folios, original size ca. 470 x 260 (1 Mass)
- D. 8 folios of an original 12, original size ca. 420 x 280 (1 Mass)
- E. 10 folios, original size ca. 395 x 270 (1 Mass)

A-D written in white mensural notation, E in black semi-mensural notation. Watermark: Briquet #6601.

1480-90. Probably copied at San Petronio; pieces possibly composed by resident musicians. These folios were found in covers of several 16th-century manuscripts at San Petronio by the archivist, Sergio Paganelli, in 1966.

(Willaert)-1, anon-27

62 paper folios, 615 x 420; each folio consists of two pages glued together for extra strength. Original foliation, 1-62. No index. The manuscript contains three sets of nine responsories for Holy Week, with a title page for each set; the hymn by Willaert is an addition at the end in another hand. The voice parts are arranged in inverted choirbook format. Large black inked calligraphic primary initials.

Mid-16th century; a new title page, pasted over original title page (f. 1), bears the date 1696, apparently date of restoration of the manuscript; original title page is dated 1585, which may be date of an earlier restoration. Copied and used at San Petronio in Bologna.
